

Weekly Program

- Last week was a business meeting. A board meeting was held on Monday, April 24.
- Treasurer's report
 - Operating $5,529.36
 - Savings $19,321.56
 - Trust $5,720.28
 - Petty Cash $100.00
 - Fred Meola will contact Eric Shore at Whippany Park High School to find out their plans for RYLA this year.
 - The board voted to accept Ron Greenwald into the club.
 - Barbara Pezzotta said she was interested in joining the club.
 - A police officer also wants to join the club. Carol Palk will ask him to attend a few meetings.
 - Affinity Federal Credit Union requested a copy of our by-laws to include in a submission to add our club to their list of participating associations. Adding our club does not require any cost or obligation. We will review the submission and, if acceptable to the board, sign it. If the club becomes a participating association, members of the club have the option of joining the credit union.
 - The club offered to donate medical kits to Hanover Police Officers. Officer Michael Loock said that there is a wide variety of kits available and asked if we could give him a dollar estimate of our donation. Carol Palk is getting more information and we will vote on it at next board meeting.
 - The board approved a $1,000.00

- donation to Polio Plus.
- Fred Meola asked Dave King, Val Kostenko, and Ken Lemanowicz to be on the Paul Harris Fellow Committee.
 - The board approved two $100.00 scholarships for students at Memorial Junior School.
 - The board approved a $250.00 donation to the Education Foundation 5K Fun Run.
 - Fred Meola asked to club to meet his goal of $1,000.00 to The Rotary Foundation.

New Club Member

Last week Ken Lemanowicz inducted Ron Greenwald into our club. Ron has been regularly attending our weekly meetings and has already sold a few duck race tickets. Please welcome him into our club and put him to work. The duck race would be a good place to start. He can count and sort ducks. Maybe he can row a boat or use a gas powered leaf blower. He would probably like to opportunity to roll up a fire hose.

Lotteries

Last week Mike Wasco won the 50/50 drawing. Last week the Members Only raffle was up to $309. Mike Pezzotta won $10.

Birthday

Last week we did not sing happy birthday to Ann-Margret.

Guests

- Last week our guests were:
- Ron Greenwald
 - Barbara Pezzotta
 - Fred Viegas

Program Schedule
